Day 2: Ban Gioc Waterfall – Phja O?c Peak - Hoai Khao (B, L, D)

Located in 1,100 meter above sea level, Nguyen Binh district is the roof of Cao Bang province. Living in this only last and foremost natural forest of Cao Bang province are many groups of ethnic minorities such as Dzao, Tay, Nung, H'mong, Kinh, Ngai, Hoa with the subsistence livelihoods like growing precious medicinal plants, growing water rice in terrace fields, maize, raising poultries, weaving raw fabric weaving, build wooden houses, etc. Because of un-touching by tourists so that people call Nguyen Binh is a sleeping princess, still waiting for a prince to wake her up, alike of the mystery of Phia O?c peak at 1,931m for a magnificent view, a giant grass hills of Phan Thanh commune, Kolia tea farm with Gate to heaven, a very large natural bamboo forest Truc Sao and colorful livelihood of minorities....

7:00 We join the car to drive to the Ban Gioc Truc Lam pagoda, where is considered as a sacred place guarding the border of Vietnam. From the temple's cloud courtyard we can have the valley photo and Ban Gioc waterfall photo.

8:00 Have breakfast and check out

8:30 We join the car to drive to Nguom Ngao grotto and visit it in an hour.

9:30 Depart for Nguyen Binh district with our tour guide and driver. Through 2 hours via Quang Uyen then stop at Cao Bang town for lunch. After lunch we drive another 2 hours to Nguyen Binh district and have first stop at Phja O?c peak which is considered as the top roof of Northeast of Vietnam. After visit the magnificent view, we drive to Hoai Khao village where we stay tonight with the Coin Dzao ethnic group. Have dinner with family of Coin Dzao and overnight here.

Herbal foots soaking is a great experience in the evening. We just need only thirty minutes to soak foots in a wooden bow of warm water with traditional herb of Dzao minority that can kill the tired of the day and healing your physical for a great sleep.

Day 3: Hoai Khao – Ha Noi (B, L)

7:30AM after breakfast, we have a leisure morning for a walk around the fairyland of Hoai Khao village, enjoying the peaceful area then walk 2,5km or motor bike to Bee Grotto where have plenty of natural giant bee nests.

If elsewhere the product of the bee is honey, the Dao people in Hoai Khao only take beeswax for printing beeswax on paper. After visiting the bee nests, we return our homestay for lunch then bid farewell the family to go to Hanoi city.
